Dear BAE Community:

Ballet Academy East (BAE) is committed to providing the highest level of training to our students. Graduates of BAE are currently members of professional companies throughout the country, including New York City Ballet, American Ballet Theatre, BalletMet, Los Angeles Ballet, Memphis Ballet, Kansas City Ballet, Sarasota Ballet and Oregon Ballet Theater.

Performing experience is an essential and integral part of the training at BAE. Aspiring dancers need performing opportunities in order to develop both artistically and technically. The 2012 BAE Student Company will perform at the Ailey Citigroup Theater, February 23-25 and at the Gerald W. Lynch Theater, May 18-20. The quality of BAE's productions is highly professional in order to best prepare our students for life in the theater.

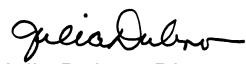

In order to help accomplish our fundraising goal, we will hold our annual Family Gala/Silent Auction Benefit on February 25, 2012, directly following the performance. Please support the BAE Student Company by donating items, gift certificates and/or unique experiences to the silent auction. In addition to some items being on display at the gala, the full auction will be posted online at "Bidding for Good" from January 23 through February 29.

Due to the generosity of last year's donors, we reached our fundraising goal. We are confident that with your help and participation, this event will again be a tremendous success for the BAE Student Company.

Please complete the donor form and return it to Ballet Academy East by January 17, 2012. Donors will receive a thank you acknowledgement in our very special Spring Performance journal. If you have any questions, please feel free to contact the auction chair, Jennifer Krueger (jkrueger.krueger@gmail.com or 917-376-8945).

Proceeds from the auction go towards funding the February and May performances. By giving these invaluable performing opportunities to our students today, we nurture and build the professional dancers of tomorrow.

Sincerely,

Julia Dubno, Director
